affair, which brought cries of derision from the spectators, at all stages of the Perseverance, a Whitney cast-off, was the only one named to go, but at the last moment George Odom decided to start preme Court yesterday against the Wash-Oraculum. Odom did not believe that his ington Jockey Club and its stewards, colt could win, but there were many spectators who backed Oraculum, simply Howland, by Joseph Marrone, a horse because they could not accept the price trainer, who seeks to recover $50,000 damagainst Perseverance.

In the betting Perseverance was backed and reputation." down to 1 to 4, while Oraculum went up Odom's colt had a lead of ten lengths or on that day. more. Those who bet on Perseverance Sorcerer kept on with all kinds of speed, increasing his advantage with each furlong. Pereseverance, when let down, could not raise a respectable gallop, se that he was subjected to hoots and jeers when Oraculum rolled home fifteen lengths in front of him in 3:13.

Glaueus Disqualified. The stewards got busy after the fourth ably best, for after being knocked back in Missouri.

Inciof stimulants, turned him over to a vet-Hibbs. 2 to 1 favorite, had early speed in this race, but he tired in the stretch. Firebrand, 6 to 1, then went to the front and won easily from Sanguine, backed speed and rapidly increasing membership. down to 4, with the favorite a poor third. The time was 1:17.

Frank Frisbie's Malaga, a 10-to-1 shot, came with a great rush at the end and just got up in time to win the second race for maiden two-year-olds, one mile, by a neck from Norbitt, even-money favorite, who was weakly ridden by Beckman. Silver Ball, a 30-to-1 shot, dropped from the clouds and got third place by a head from Octole. Kingsessing, backed down to 5, stopped early The time was 1:47.

Aiken Captures Fifth. Aiken, backed down to 3 to 1, an equal favorite with Niantic in the fifth event for maidens at a mile, came away cleverly at the last sixteenth pole and won with something to spare in 1:46. Kempton, 6 to 1, was easily second, while Duffield, backed down to 15 to 1, got third place in the last jump by a head, fourth.

three winners had mounts in the sixth race for platers at a mile and a furlong. Fancy Bird, well backed, at 8 to 1, was an easy winner, Cullen sitting still all the way. Hooray, 3 to 1, ran into the place, with a safe margin over Dolly Spanker, 6-to-5 favorite, who was ridden all over the track by a green jockey named Nelligan. The time was 1:59 2-5. Howard Shean, 9-to-5 favorite, graduated from the maiden class in the last race, at a mile. He was much the best, and won in a gallop. High Jumper, backed down to 8, had no trouble in beating Lady Avis, heavily backed at 3 to 1, for the place. Princess Nettie, reduced from 5 to 3, was never dangerous. The time showed the way for half a mile. Five favorites were beaten, but all the winners were backed just the same. Notter and McDaniel each rode two win-
